TOMORROW.MAG SPECIAL REPORT

Tomorrow.Mag is an online magazine with stories about the new urban reality. A collective discussion platform –for people, institutions, and businesses– regarding the existing urban development model and the challenges it faces.

Get the spotlight on your success story in a monographic issue of our online magazine.

This proposal includes:

- Special report highlighting how the partner's administration/institution envisions and plans a smarter future for cities. Our editorial team authors the text based on a previous conversation with the partner. The article goes live after the partner's validation.
- Top visibility on Tomorrow.Mag homepage (2 weeks) and one newsletter.
- Promotion on Tomorrow.City and Smart City Expo social media.
